

Hello, I'm Tim Sevigny. I'm a video editor.

With over a decade of working experience under my belt, I've established myself as a dependable and versatile pro in the edit room. Skilled both technically and creatively, I've got my finger on the pulse, and it's my goal to be a valued collaborator in any creative environment that I'm lucky enough to find myself in. I'm always learning. Always expanding my craft. Always looking to elevate the art, science, and creative experience of filmmaking in any way that I can. Let's get together and make something great!
